- This animal science lease information form is good for one 4-H program year, October 1 through September 30. The form must be submitted by May 15 of the program year for the animals to be eligible for showing competitively.
- We have read and understand the project requirements as outlined on the Minnesota 4-H animal science project lease fact sheet and have shared a copy of the lease fact sheet with the owner of the animal(s).
- We understand that the lease agreement is between the 4-H member/family and the owner of the animal. Neither the animal owner nor their family members/employees are considered Minnesota 4-H Volunteers in their role of leasing animals. The University of Minnesota Extension Center for Youth Development is not responsible for ensuring a safe environment except when the 4-H member(s) is on site at a scheduled Minnesota 4-H program.
