

IV. My Youth Leadership Story

Include in story personal life skills you learned, attach a picture of your favorite experience and tell how you've grown in this project. Indicate what personal life skills you learned for each of the most important individual and group activities in which you were involved. Examples of personal life skills include making decisions, solving problems, delegating responsibilities, expressing yourself, pursuing personal goals, assuming responsibility, taking risks, locating and using resources, and helping others. Add additional pages if necessary.

V. My Best Youth Leadership Experience - Briefly describe one experience that gave you the most satisfaction.
