

Douglas County 4-H Horseback Riding Program

What could be better than being rewarded for doing something you love? That's what this horseback riding program is all about. Once you enroll in this program, you simply log the hours you spend riding. As you log the hours from 25 hours up you can earn great rewards. Sign up today to take advantage of this great program. You are going to put hours in the saddle anyway, why not have something extra to show for it?

Qualifications and Rules:

You must be a current member of Douglas County 4-H. You must keep your membership current the entire time you record hours toward a recognition level. Keep track of your riding and log each and every time you ride. The hours will accumulate from year to year.

- Pay a one time fee of $15.00
- Log hours AFTER riding on the official log sheet.
- The riding program is based on the honor system. That said, if you are found to be lying about your time, you will lose all privileges of the riding program.
- Parents must confirm column totals and initial them to be valid
- You can use any breed, color, sex, or age of horse
- You do not have to own the horse, and you can ride more than one horse
- Time must be logged in ½ hour increments
- You must have the name of the horse on the log sheet
- There are no refunds if you leave the club or choose not to remain in the program
